

April 8, 1940.

Dr. Rudolph Graves,
114 E. Second St.,
Greenville, N. C.

Dear Doctor:

I have written you several times and received no answer, consequently, I asked a Friend of mine in Tarboro to come to Greenville and see about renting the Park for the Eagles and Black Yankees to play a Ball game on May 7th. This party, Mr. Percy Simon of 518 E. St. James St., Tarboro, N. C. wrote me that you had made the trip to Greenville and found the night would be O. K., but that you had already started to work on publicity. I was surprised to learn this from him, as I have not had one word of correspondence from you. It could be possible that your letters have gone astray, but if this is the case it has never happened before. Be sure you address your correspondence to Montgomery Street and not Montgomery Avenue, as there is Montgomery Ave. in a nearby community and this has caused some confusion in the past.

I will expect to hear from you by return mail, so I will know you are planning to take care of the game for me. I will ship the placards with accompanying passes in plenty time.

Will greatly appreciate your co-operation.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ